Orange County AA Convention Set for April 22-24

Sobriety 24/7 in 2011 is theme of the 26th Annual event in Costa Mesa

I am honored and privileged to serve as this years Convention Chairman. I can so relate to what my friend Steve said last year:

"Upon getting sober in 1988, the idea of having fun without alcohol was inconceivable. My whole life revolved around drinking. Alcohol was my courage to do life."

When I got sober, those already here and being of service told me to get involved; become a part of Alcoholic Anonymous and all it has to offer. However, I did not want to be responsible or accountable and was not ready to go to any lengths for recovery. My alcoholism was taking everything good and right in my life, and I did not know what to do about stopping the sadness and loss. I have not ever been as lonely as I once was prior to being part of this convention. I have learned to get out of my own selfishness and self-centeredness through fellowship and service in the program of Alcoholics Anonymous and to have fun by being involved at The Orange County AA Convention. I learned here in Alcoholics Anonymous how to mend those broken relationships and how to see the whole of my life through an attitude of gratitude, an attitude of get to rather then have to.

During the past twenty-two years since my first Orange County AA Convention, my attitude and outlook have changed. I have grown not only in my own sobriety but also in service to others in the fellowship and the communities that they serve. Many of the people I work with emulate what I do. The Big Book says, "You cannot transmit something you haven't got." If you are not working the 12 Steps, if you're not being of service, if you're not having fun, while living the traditions, it will be very difficult to show an attitude of gratitude in love and tolerance. So when asked, I lead and they follow me into sobriety and service. Just going to meetings is not enough; just not drinking is not enough. I must be involved and show gratitude in every aspect of my life. Love and Service have always saved me from myself. That is why I am still here, still sober, still committed and still having Fun.

Come join a few thousand sober people; volunteer, serve, enjoy and most of all have fun with us making new friends committed to their sobriety too. We will have marathon meetings all weekend, day and night. Speakers from other states and from California, golf tournament, dances, hospitality and gathering areas, information booths, representatives from GSR, Central Office, and H&I will be highlighted, too. There will be workshops, a poker run called Rods and Rides, allowing both classic cars and motorcycles. Additionally, we will have a movie room that shows continuous alcoholic-related movies to enjoy during the weekend.

The Doctor's Opinion

Number 1 of 12 articles on the Big Book

I remember vividly, reading the Doctor's Opinion in the Big Book as a still-drinking alcoholic who was only going to AA meetings to get my attendance card signed. I was outraged, (and I thought "you" [meaning YOU ALCOHOLICS] should be too) that a "civilian" would try to describe the life YOU people had to live. It was a few months later, now sober and attending a Big Book Study to see how I could do this without YOUR help, that I started to understand the truly profound nature of the kindly doctor's writings.

I had done some investigation of this thing called Alcoholics Anonymous by reading the book "Alcoholics Anonymous Comes of Age." In this book I learned that Dr. Silkworth was considered sort of a nut by most of his peers in the medical and psychiatric professions because of his theory that "the body of the alcoholic is quite as abnormal as his mind." Up to this point in medical history, alcoholism, (alcoholism as a name for the disease was just starting to be used by a few medical professionals, in preference to the term that was more popular at the time - alcohol addiction) had been generally classified as a moral problem, or a form of mental illness. Dr. Silkworth had risked his reputation, (35 years treating alcoholics and drug addicts, Princeton Medical School graduate) in theorizing that alcoholism was a two-fold disease, affecting the body, as well as the mind. He was also humble enough to realize that there was little he, with his "synthetic knowledge," could do to help most chronic alcoholics.

In his second letter for inclusion in the Big Book, Dr. Silkworth made the statement that "Frothy emotional appeal seldom suffices. The message which can interest and hold these alcoholic people must have depth and weight. In nearly all cases, their ideals must be grounded in a power greater than themselves, if they are to re-create their lives." In these three simple sentences, the doctor, wittingly or unwittingly, describes the principles which have allowed Alcoholics Anonymous to work so successfully with the chronic alcoholic. If frothy emotional appeal from our families and other loved ones had worked, we would have quit long ago. When Bob went to talk with Bill the day after Mother's Day in 1935, the message that got Bob's attention had depth and weight – it was from another man who had walked in Bob's shoes – who drank like him and experienced mental and physical torture just like Bob had experienced. Bill was a peer, not a caregiver. And finally, the way out was through a spiritual experience that would expel the obsession to drink, thereby never setting off the phenomenon of craving. It has worked just that way since 1935.

There is so much more in the Doctor's Opinion that I would need to take up all the pages in this issue of The Anonymous Times to describe the rest. If this article has been interesting to you, I recommend that you locate and commit to a small Big Book Study that takes the time to study and dissect the principles outlined in the Doctor's Opinion and the first 11 chapters of the Big Book. For those in Anaheim, you might try out the Gratitude Is An Action Group, 6:30PM on Friday in the church at the corner of Magnolia and Orange. There are many wonderful Big Book Studies in Orange County each week.

Next issue, "Bill's Story".

FIRST AA MEETING

The Gatehouse on the Seiberling Estate was the site of the first get-together between Bob and Bill, and from there A.A. has grown worldwide.

An obituary in the Dec. 10,1979, Los Angeles Times submitted by Joe W. from Santa Ana:

"Henrietta Buckler Seiberling, 91, who in the early 1930s opened her home in Akron, Ohio, to two alcoholics who held the first meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous there. The wife of the late J. Frederick Seiberling, whose father founded Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., she devoted most of her life to the A.A. movement in New York City."

Back-Up Volunteers Needed

Temporary volunteers are needed at Central Office to answer phone calls and talk to people in need of help as the new year gets under way.

Even though the holidays are over, any time of year can be troublesome for people struggling with alcoholism. And while Central Office is typically staffed with caring and knowledgeable individuals, there are times when they are sick or on vacation and must temporarily miss their shifts.

Those with at least six months of sobriety are encouraged to contact Roxy at Central Office to help as a back-up volunteer. Call (714) 773-4357.

Keep Your Commitments - It's Wonderful to Be Of Service

It is Valentine's Day as I write this, and I am at work with the other partners that make this commitment happen. It makes me happy when I think of how powerful it is for a newcomer to hear a human voice when they call AA. It meant a lot to me when I called, scared and frustrated and cut up from taking a razor to my arms to see if I had any feeling left in them.

I was on the verge of being hopeless and helpless. There was a very soft voice in my head that I call HOPE. It moved me to make the phone call. When I called and a man responded with answers to my questions, it was as if I had died and gone to a safe place in the sky. He did not lecture me. He asked one question: Did I think I could stop once I started drinking? I told him no. He told me that I might be alcoholic and asked how long it would take me to get to Cider House in Norwalk.

It was amazing, totally amazing. I had found another alcoholic who knew how I was feeling. I heard only love from him. I wanted more.

I was tired of being sick and tired. I wanted what that man on the phone had. He was happy and he understood. I really didn't have to say much after I asked him, "Can you help me? I think I am dying from drinking too much."

I now know the importance of making sure that we keep our commitments in AA and that if you can't keep it, find someone to fill in for you.

What would happen if we decided for the day to quit being of service. The aftermath for a newcomer would be horrible. Where would we turn? Think about who reached out their hand to you when you first got here. Think about the hopeless feeling of having no one to turn to.

The previous issue of the Anonymous Times carried an article about picking up on newcomers. When a newcomer reaches out, help them to feel a part of this wonderful new life. If you see someone trying to 13-step a newcomer, try and stop this. If you see someone sitting alone, reach out your hand. If you have service commitments and you show up and do them, your selfish, self-centeredness will start to fade away. You will become a part of. You will begin a journey like no other. You will never be alone if you don't want to be. But you must learn the importance of commitments.

I believe that whenever we get the opportunity to work with others, we should freely accept it. If someone invites you to a panel, just go. You will remember where you came from. And hopefully you won't want to go back there again.

The Big Book states that we cannot transmit something that we do not have. Most commitments are for six months and generally you need to have six months of sobriety. The next time you go to an AA meeting, look around the room. Someone showed up to make coffee. Someone else showed up with chips to hand out. There might be cookies or clean ash trays. Someone showed up early to make this meeting the best meeting ever. There are so many ways that you can be of service. I simply think you should try them all -one will catch your attention, and the rest of your life will be filled with love, laughter and freedom. I never again want to be that lost girl reaching out to someone, desperately hoping they will listen, show kindness and understanding.

If you want to grab a commitment, put your hand up at meetings and let them know you want to be part of this thing called sobriety. You will learn how to "work" for your sobriety.

In Service.

Roxy T.

Remembering Roger "Rubber Duck" E.

"Revelry, revelry, revelry, the Duck is in the Pond."

AA lost a good friend when Roger "Rubber Duck" E. died in January. When he would call announcing revelry, it meant that he was at the pool and that I was to come down and swim. Sometimes I could, sometimes I couldn't, but at the same time he often invited me to get into trouble with him. Not bad trouble, but the stupid kind, like enticing me to play hooky from work to go to the beach with him. "Sorry Duck, I can't go," I'd say. Usually.

His jolly nature, white beard and outsized appearance enabled him to play Santa Claus with ease every year. And he was the happiest, too. He lived in the same "Ghetto Palace" as I did. We each had a one-bedroom studio apartment. We both snuck in our cats. I really got to know the Duck when he went out on pain pills that were prescribed to alleviate the discomfort of the cancer treatment he was undergoing at the time.

While Roger was "out," he never bad-mouthed the program, and he never lectured me on life with my daughter. In fact, he and my daughter became friends while he was out. Each thought it would be a good idea to get drunk together. Roger was happy, and I was happy when he came back to AA after about a year. I will miss the good times we had. And AA will miss a good friend.

Faithful Fivers Get High Fives For Support!!!

What are Faithful Fivers?

Faithful Fivers are A.A. members who pledge at least $5.00 each month toward the support of their local Central Office. This idea is catching on around the country. In the publication of the Tucson Area Intergroup, Just For Today, a story noted that "the plan is used in several other cities and came about when we remembered that many of us had spent more than $5.00 every week on alcohol during our drinking days."

Captured Quips from California Jack

The wit and wisdom of Bill and Bob's friends

From the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous, pg 133: "A body badly burned by alcohol does not recover overnight nor do twisted thinking and depression vanish in a twinkling."

If you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.

I've been around long enough to know that I haven't been around long enough to know.

I did one of my favorite things this morning — I woke up.

We're all here because we're not all there.

Depression is anger without enthusiasm.

I'm in a constant dogfight with this head that I have to carry around with me.

I fired God, I took over, and it's not going so well.

I asked my sponsor, "Why is that so easy for you?" He answered, "Because I'm not dealing with your head."

Pray for him doesn't mean, "God make him suffer and let me watch!"

If I ever get it all together, I'm not sure where I'll put it.

This isn't a cruising program, you either grow or die.

Don't believe everything you think.

If you're trying to learn the violin, you shouldn't expect to be ready for Carnegie Hall after the third practice.

It's really cool, nowadays when I have to pee in the cup, the only problem that I have is aiming.

And Here Are a Few Thoughts Just For Fun —

Paraprosdokian - A paraprosdokian is a figure of speech in which the latter part of a sentence or phrase is surprising or unexpected in a way that causes the reader or listener to reframe or reinterpret the first part.

Knowledge is knowing a tomato is a fruit; wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.

The early bird might get the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese.

How is it one careless match can start a forest fire, but it takes a whole box to start a campfire?

I thought I wanted a career; turns out I just wanted pay checks.

AA History

Alcoholism as a Disease Concept Dates to 1785

Question: Was Bill W. the first to consider alcoholism an illness or a disease?

Answer: Dr. Benjamin Rush, the first surgeon general of the United States wrote, "Inquiry Into the effects of Ardent Spirits Upon the Human Body and Mind (published 1785)." In this report, he clearly described the drunkard's condition as a loss of control over drinking behavior, declared the condition to be a disease and prescribed total abstinence as the only way to cure a drunkard. Rush was the first American medical authority on alcoholism.

Almost simultaneously in England,

Dr. Thomas Trotter wrote a paper entitled, "Essay, Medical, Philosophical and Chemical, on Drunkenness." His definition of alcoholism goes as follows:

"In medical language, I consider drunkenness, strictly speaking, to be a disease; produced by a remote cause, and giving birth to actions and movements in the living body, that disorder the functions of health."
